It will stand ready to help in every way possible toward assimilation of Displaced Persons into the life of the community, and assist in adjustment of problems that may arise. The Committee will have an advisory relationship to all Agencies sponsoring Displaced Persons families. It will help to publicize the need for an increasing number of jobs and sponsors in order that the full number of Displaced Persons authorized by the present law may be brought into the country before July 1st, 1950, when the law expires.

3. Such Committee shall meet upon call of the Chairman.

4. The expiration date of the Committee will be June 30, 1951.

5. This Order shall take effect on February 24, 1950.
