261 Transcribed record of land grants made by the Duke of York.
270 Transcription of records of the Delaware colony through the end of the Duke of York period. Volume is a chronological record of settlement activities for Delaware. It begins with a transcription of the translations of the original land grants made by the Dutch. In addition to the names of the Dutch administrator of New Amsterdam and the grantee, the description of lands granted, and the date, the transcriptions are numbered and contain references to the original Dutch deed volume and page number. Contains entries for New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. Manuscript copies were printed as a result of an Act of the General Assembly in 1899.
