261 The slave inhabitant schedules list the owners of slaves, number of slaves, and their individual descriptions and status.
270 Census schedules of slave inhabitants of each hundred within each county in Delaware were compiled by assistant marshals and submitted to the Secretary of the Interior to determine apportionment of representation and taxation. Returns of each hundred include the name of hundred; name of the county; and the name of each assistant marshal. Entries for each individual slave owner include name and the number of slaves owned. Slaves are described by age, sex, and color [black or mulatto]; whether fugitive from the state or not; manumitted or not; and whether the slave suffered any physical or mental deficiency [deaf, mute, blind, insane or idiotic]. Numbers were substituted for names of slaves according to official instructions to the enumerators. For 1860 returns exist for Duck Creek Hundred, Dover Hundred, and Mispillion Hundred.
