261 Annual, semi-annual, and monthly narrative and statistical reports from state offices and county agents in Delaware.
270 The reports detail the accomplishments of the Extension Service in the state. They describe programs held, meetings attended, projects worked on, agricultural problems and needs, Boys and Girls Club (later called 4-H) activities, and the Service's influence on Delaware's agricultural community. These reports mention the impact of World War I and II on farming and production needs. Local publications, newsletters, newspaper clippings, and photos were attached to some reports.
