261 Records of the Joint Finance Committee budget hearings. Hearings are held so that committee members can ask questions of agency heads and to allow agency and public comment on proposed budgets.
270 A file was created for each agency. Files may include minutes of the hearings, copies of submitted remarks, and budget overviews. Minutes show the name of the agency and budget number, the date, time, tape numbers, summations of remarks by agency head, questions from the committee, and a list of speakers and their affiliation. Copies of prepared remarks may be included as well as examples of publications, publicity, or work products. Budget overviews show the current and proposed budget dollars, amount of difference, items to be funded, items not recommended, performance measures, and past year highlights.
