261 Record of the Association meetings and payment of dues and library purchases.
270 Minutes (1918-1921) note the date, place of meeting, members present, and business discussed. Subjects include election of officers, formulation of by-laws, approval of purchases, and the location of the library. The minutes include a copy of the certificate of incorporation and the by-laws. Only a few meetings are recorded.

The ledger (1918-1934) lists the names of members, amount paid for each dues period, date paid, and how paid. The Cash Book (1918-1934) section of the book shows the date, name of member paying dues, amount paid, date of purchase, name of payee, and amount paid.
