241 3 volumes in box
261 Record of fees collected in response to judgments issued by justices of the peace.
270 Since the volumes are from three distinctly different periods in history, information contained in volumes varies. However, in general, entries show date; account title; names of plaintiff, defendant, and witnesses; charge; disposition of case (dismissed, committed, held for trial by Court of General Sessions or Oyer and Terminer); court costs; and amounts received/paid and balances.
Fee books were kept by William Berry (1792-1794), Jacob Biddle (1828-1835), and George W. Tilghman (1914-1926).
