261 Records of civil action cases heard before the Superior Court.
270 Documents within the case files generally show the court term, names and residents of plaintiff(s) and defendant(s), names of judges, reason for case, amount of debt (if any), signature of the prothonotary, and date of document issuance. Information shown on the reverse of the papers includes the case number; the court term; and names of the plaintiff, defendant, and sheriff. Of special interest in this series are the transcripts and exhibits from the Addicks vs Addicks divorce case.
Among the documents in this series pertinent to the case are letters, pieces of physical evidence, and transcripts of the testimonies of all witnesses. [John Edward Charles O'Sullivan Addicks was a prominent utility magnate who tried to buy victory in a senatorial contest for a seat as a Delaware representative to the United States Senate.]
