 261 Cases argued by the tax collector in the Court of Common Pleas for non payment of taxes.
 270 Records include writs of attachment, orders to the sheriff, and in some cases, inventories. Writs show names of tax collector and defendant, hundred of property, year of delinquency, number of writ, date of court appearance by collector, and affidavit of tax collector. Affidavit includes amount of delinquency, interest accrued, time and date of defendant's court appearance. Reverse shows case number, court term, names of tax collector and defendant, and years of delinquency with the notation "Attachment for Taxes." The orders to the sheriff include name of sheriff and order him to attach goods and chattels of named defendant as well as to summon the defendant to court on specified day and time. Information also includes amount of taxes due and interest accrued.

Some suits also include an inventory and appraisal of the goods of the defendant. Entries in addition to the actual inventory include name and address of defendant, reason (writ of attachment for taxes) for inventory, term of writ, and names of receiver of taxes and sheriff. Similar records for an earlier period can be found in sheriff sales.
