261 Petitions to add a fathers name to the birth certificate when the original certificate does not include this or to change the name of the father on a birth certificate when the wrong person is listed. A court order must be received by the Bureau of Vital Statistics to make the change.
270 Files usually include a petition to change father's name on birth certificate, verification, consent, copy of old birth certificate, final order, and a case master list. These records may show the case number, date of documents, names of child, mother, birth father, and listed father, date of birth, where born, and petitioner's name, address, and phone number.
