261 Record of the proceedings of the court and miscellaneous court activities.
270 Proceedings of cases and requests heard by the court. Entries give the court term, name(s) of complainants(s), respondent(s), and their attorneys, date of complaint filing, dates and type of subsequent court actions taken, case disposition, decree or rule of the court, signature of the Chancellor, court costs for case. The earliest volume 1781-1819 was created when three small volumes were bound together. The first two booklets are Chancery Court proceedings for 1781-1819. The third booklet is an Appeals Docket for 1805-1819. All three have their own separate pagination. A description of the contents of the Appeals Docket will be found in the Appeals Docket series description.
