261 Legal documents submitted to the Orphans' Court for adoption cases and transcribed into dockets. Adoption records are for 1885-1949 and an index to the Adoption Dockets is for 1937-1970.
270 Dockets record the petition for adoption by the adoptive parents, court orders, court rulings, statements by character witnesses, the final decree, and may include a report by the State Board of Welfare or another adoption agency recommending the adoption. Entries may give the names of the adoptive parents, child, and birth parents; sex, age, and birth date of the child; status and location of the birth parents; family situation leading to adoption; address of petitioners and birth parents; name of attorney; and name of the judge.

The 1937-1970 index volume indexes Volumes C through L. It shows the name of the adopted child, names of natural parents, date of interlocutory and/or final decree, volume number, and page number.
