261 Files maintained on cases, civil and criminal, appearing before the Family Court and which are now completed.
270 The cases deal with domestic disputes, endangering the welfare of a child, and juvenile crimes. Records show the names of the complainants and defendants, their addresses, description of the crime, and court actions taken. Date of birth and social security number of the defendant is also given. Types of records include Family Docket sheets, Notice of Nolle Prosequi, various types of motions and orders, Trial Status Reports, Uniform Criminal Complaint and Summons, Commitments, Juvenile Bail/Detention Orders, Dispositions, Plea Agreements, Pre-sentence Investigation Reports, Progress Reports, Sentencing Orders, Bail and Disposition Sheets, Affidavit of Probable Cause, and Charge Sheets. These records include civil, divorce, adult and juvenile criminal cases. Starting in 1987, criminal cases were sometimes filed and numbered separately.
