 261 Papers of the administrative assistant to Governor Tribbitt.
 270 Records contain information on social security legislation, welfare, State boundaries, the Governor's reelection campaign, government efficiency, environmental issues, taxes, the functions and organization of the Governor's office and other government agencies, and information concerning State employee's benefits. One box contains the minutes and bylaws of the Delaware Health Services Authority of which Webb was a board member. This organization was established as a priority-setting agency for all Federal health dollars coming to Delaware and became a coordinating data collection and education mechanism for Delaware's health community. Also see Governor Tribbitt's Papers.
