261 Record of the meetings of the Labor Management Committee. Founded in 1984, the Committee works with public employee unions to improve labor-management communications, to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of state service, and to improve the quality of work life for state employees.
270 Minutes show the date, time, place of meeting, members present and absent, others present, reports given, and business discussed. Meeting agendas and reports may be attached. Subjects include labor-management committees in various agencies, Wellness Task Force, state benefits, employee recognition, state holidays, smoking ban, recycling, total quality management, sick leave, and training.

One folder includes histories of the Committee, memorandums of agreement with unions, "Proposal for a Delaware Labor-Management Cooperation Program," newsletters, and memorandums relating to absenteeism, committee structure, and meetings.
