 261 Record of income to and expenditures from the general account for the State and a record of licenses and certificates dispensed to and sold by county officials and clergymen (1793-1825).
 270 Entries show account title, date of entry, disbursements (salaries, taxes, and incidentals), and receipts (fees and fines collected, legislative appropriations, and taxes), journal reference, and amounts paid and received. License volume entries show account, date, number, and type of license (marriage, tavern, hawkers, peddlers, and tin vendors), and total number of licenses distributed. Also includes accounts of the Secretary of State showing date of entry, purpose and amount of disbursements (paid State Treasurer), receipts (for marriage and tavern licenses, use of the great seal, and commissions of officials), and balances. Some of the receipts may have been used for the Fund to Establish Schools.
 Later entries in Ledger A include "certificates" and "patents" with no additional information to help determine what kind of certificate or patent was being sold. In Ledger B, "Civil list" account heading gives salaries and other expenses for officials.
 290 Ledger A (1793-1825), and Ledger B, Account Book (1793-1825).
