 261 Record documents the State of Delaware account and the fund for Establishing Schools.
 270 Entries in the State of Delaware account show date; names of payee and payor; reason for disbursement (salaries, loans, and other services to the State) and receipts (fees and fines collected, dividends, state taxes collected, and federal fund); and amounts of each. The fund for establishing schools notes date of entry; reason for disbursement to the various school districts of each county and trustee commission; receipts (lottery, dividends stocks, license fees, and interest from surplus revenue); and totals. Monies collected by the prothonotary from license fees for importing or exporting slaves were an additional source of funds for establishing schools. Entries show to whom a license was granted, to whom the slaves were to be transported, and amount of license. Also included are a June 1826 income account and orders on investments made on behalf of the fund for establishing schools in Delaware. Records were kept by Peter Parker, Ezekiel Cowgill, and Gardner H. Wright, State Treasurers.
 290 Peter Parker Account as State Treasurer and Trustee of the School Fund.
 ? Ezekil Cowgill, Treasurer in 1826.
