 261 Initial recording of daily receipts and disbursements. The waste book is more commonly known as a day book.
 270 Entries show ledger number, account title, reason for disbursement (military, order of General Assembly, salaries, and services rendered to the state) or receipt (tax, fee, or fine collected), date of entry, totals, and reference to entry in a ledger. The earlier volume contains some of the same entries as those recorded in the Auditor's "Journal B" 1793-1840, RG1315.7. Handwriting in this 'waste book' and in the auditor's letterbook by Eleazer McComb appear to be the same.
 290 Waste Book A, Daybook.
