1315-000-007, and 1315-000-009.
261 Record of annual taxes collected by hundreds.
270 Register show date, name and office submitting duplicate tax collection sheets, county, hundred, amount collected, county quota and surplus.
Surplus funds were used to pay commissions to the collectors for the collection of delinquent taxes.
Register created in response to "an act making provisions for the support of Government for 1810," passed January 30, 1810. Also box contains letter book of Eleazor McComb [1784-1792], journal [1793-1840], tax records, A [1790-1825], and B [1810-1825], summons [1789-1795].
After the amounts collected of each hundred are listed and totaled, the county quota for that year is noted with the amount for that year. A percentage on each $100 dollars is charged against the total amount collected from all the hundreds to which the county quota is subtracted, resulting in surplus to be used to pay commissions for the collection of delinquencies.
