 261 Reports on the end of year financial status for each of the school districts.
 270 Series included documents from all three counties reporting the county, school District Number and year. They also detail expenditures and money received. Other details include the local name of the district, teacher's name, salary, number of days the school was open, number and gender of students, and estimated value of property. See the Clerk of the Peace for each county for similar, earlier records with the same series title.
