261 Primarily commission stubs for voter registration officials. Records relating to commissions for county and state officials and special constables are also included.
270 Commission stubs show name of person granted a commission, their county and town of residence, office to be held, date of commission, and election and representative district number. The 1922 and 1924 files include correspondence from persons who declined to serve and returned their commission. Files relating to commissions of state and county officials include copies of correspondence that accompanied the commission and invoices for fees the officials were required to pay.
