261 Compiled service records collected for use in the memorial at the Delaware Memorial Bridge to those who died during World War II and for the Delaware Memorial Volume.
270 The first box of this series contains a comprehensive listing of Delawareans who served in World War II and the Korean conflict. The listing for the Korean Conflict also includes servicemen from the State of New Jersey. The original newspaper clippings seeking public information for this project are also in the first box. The latter part of the first box contains soldier's forms which continue through the other four boxes of this series. A basic form was filled out by family members to include the soldier's military training, service history, cause of death/injury, and basic family information. In addition, the following information is included in some, but not all folders: photos of servicemen, obituaries, funeral notices, alumni books, discharge papers, letters from commanding officers, citations for awards, official death notifications, letters from comrades, and remarks from grieving parents. Note: the statement, "Not a Delawarean" is written on some forms. This does not necessarily reflect the veteran's connection with Delaware, just that they were not included on the memorial. See also the World War II Memorial Volume (RG 1325-003-217) and a list of deceased World War II servicemen from New Jersey (RG 1540-000-073).
