261 Research notes taken from various sources, primarily on Delaware political history.
270 Cards usually show the source with page number or other reference, year, and the notes. Notes are abstracts or short statements of fact taken from the record. Subjects include but are not limited to: appropriations, taxes, finances, creation of agencies, governmental activities, governor's messages to the General Assembly, education, crime and punishment, and money supply. Information was taken from Laws of Delaware, House Journals, Senate Journals, Scharf's History of Delaware, Minutes of the House of Assembly, Minutes of the Council, Pennsylvania Archives, and various other publications and manuscripts. Some references are taken from records at the Historical Society of Delaware and the Historical Society of Pennsylvania.
