261 Record of the meetings of the Committee.
270 Minutes generally show the date, time, and place of meeting; name or number of members present and absent; and business discussed. Subjects include gypsy moth spraying, specific pesticides, copies of appointment letters, aerial spraying, legislation, pesticide disposal, certification, product registrations, business licensing, enforcement, complaints, Environmental Protection Agency orders and regulations, worker protection, mosquito spraying, lyme disease, well monitoring, termite treatments, copies of reports, and publications.

The records for 1965 are background materials describing the environmental impact of pesticide and the need for a committee to provide guidance for proposed regulation, laws, or safety procedures. The 1966 records are minutes from a Pesticide Incident Conference at the University of Delaware. A list of committee members is included.
