241 3 volumes, 0.88 cubic feet, 2 vols. in 16x20 box, 1 loose.
261 Record of afro-american patients admitted and discharged from the sanitarium.
27X The information recorded varied volume to volume. The first (1914-1922) and third (1948-1953) volumes show admission (for the year) and case number, name and address of patient, date and time of admission, whom recommended by for admission, admitting diagnosis, examiner, remarks, religion, place and date of birth, sex, race, years within city, county, and state, occupation, name of parents, father's nationality (later birth place of both parents), employer's address or phone number, name, address, and relation of relative or friend, payee status (pay or free), discharge diagnosis, days admitted, date and time of discharge, and general remarks. Second volume (1919-1947) contains only basic information and includes entries transferred from previous volume. This volume shows only case number of previous admission, sex, name and address of nearest relative or friend, diagnosis, date and reason of end of stay (cured, arrested, against advice, or died), total days, amount paid, name and address of whom to notify at discharge, and remarks.
Later entries also show yearly admission number. Third volume also includes marital status and room number.
29X First Volume "Patient's Register, Edgewood Sanitarium" and second volume
"Register of Patients, Edgewood Sanitarium".
