261 Marriage records maintained by the Bureau of Vital Statistics and its predecessors including the county recorders' of deeds.
270 Marriage records may show county, date of marriage, name of bride and groom, date of return, ages, race, residence, occupation, name of officiate, name and birth place of bride's and groom's parents, number of previous marriages, and names of witnesses.
The keeping of the above records for the early years was extremely informal at best. Therefore, the contents of the records can differ greatly. As is to be expected, the earlier records tend to contain less information than do the more recent records. Recorder of Deed's office is noted on most returns.
