261 Birth records transferred from the Bureau of Vital Statistics and its predecessors including the county recorders' of deeds.
270 Birth records may show name of child, sex, race, date of birth, place of birth, father's and mother's names, ages, and birthplaces, father's occupation, mother's maiden name, child's number in family, number by mother, date of certificate and registration, and name and residence of informant.
The keeping of the above records for the early years was extremely informal at best. Therefore, the contents of the records can differ greatly. Earlier records tend to contain less information than the more recent records. Recorder of Deed's office is noted on most returns.
