261 Minutes document regular meeting of the advisory group for issues dealing with aging.
270 Minutes include date and location of meetings, and names of participants. Matters under consideration include the opinions and suggestions of the various participants e.g. encouraging the General Assembly to create relevant legislation, encouraging other organizations to support the passage of such legislation, formation of special committees, appropriations for the State Welfare Homes, and a proposal for grants to perform related duties. Records also include financial statements.
