261 Records relating to the construction and early history of the Stevenson House, a facility for juvenile offenders.
270 Most of the records relate to the construction of the Stevenson House in Milford. Construction files include correspondence with contractors and vendors, construction meeting minutes, contracts, agreements, inspection reports, equipment lists, and a list of the contents of the cornerstone box. One folder has correspondence, the program, guest lists, and a guest book from the building dedication in 1967. It also has a biography of Judge W. Marion Stevenson, the first Family Court judge for Kent and Sussex Counties, and whom the House was named after. Other records include early population statistics and correspondence about religious programming at the Stevenson House.
