261 Maps of the roads and highways within the State, published by the Department. The earliest map, 1916, is a copy of a map from the Library of Congress. Many of the map folders and one tube contain the mylars used to produce "Atlas of Delaware", town, hundred, county, and state maps, ca. 1964-1992. One set of 1941 maps are enlargement insets, detailed views of towns and intersections throughout the state. There are three atlases for Delaware cities and towns, 1959, 1966-1968, and 1972-1984.
