261 Various types of lists of deceased World War I servicemen with biographical and cemetery information.
270 One list is an alphabetical listing of deceased servicemen with the name of the cemetery of their burial. A working list of servicemen compiled by the Federal Historical Records Survey contains biographical information on the servicemen. This information includes the name, age, rank, residence, race, and birthdate of the person; parents' names and place of residence; organizations; dates of enlistment, death, and internment; and duty assignments. There are also a few newspaper clippings on the servicemen. Undertaker reports, which appears to be New Castle County only, show the name of the serviceman, date of death, and the cemetery where interred. Also included are lists of servicemen interred in Cathedral, Silverside and Mt. Salem Cemeteries. They show the name; the division, section and grave number where buried; if a gravestone present; and the war they served in. A Veterans of Foreign Wars list of deceased Delaware servicemen was compiled for a 1939 memorial service.
