261 Case files relating to requests to the Commission for advisory opinions. Opinions decide whether proposed or past actions by public employees violated the state's code of conduct or financial disclosure laws.
270 Files may include correspondence requesting an opinion, background materials, a memo from the legal counsel to commission members summarizing the facts of the case, a hearing transcript, and the opinion. These documents show the name and address of the requestor, dates of documents, opinion number, commissioners present at hearing, facts of the case, legal issues involved, decision by the commission, and amendments to the opinion.
