261 Reports on causes of death.
270 Early inquisitions contain names of freeholders called to view the body, date of inquisition, location, and cause of death. Later reports show date; report number; hundred where held; names of coroner, deceased, jurors, and witnesses; verdict; fees paid; other expenses; and signatures of coroner and jurors. Included for some cases are vouchers for payment of fees. Many inquisitions are missing, including the years 1918, 1923, 1925, 1930, 1938, and 1947 through 1948.
