261 Volume lists debits and credits for each school district in New Castle County.
27X Book contains the Clerk of the Peace's abbreviated record of district's expenses and income on a quarterly basis. Entries for each district include district number, year of entry, debits, and credits, and a recapitulation of totals. Debit entries include balance due committee, cash paid for tuition and contingencies, and balance due district, if any. Credit entries were done on an annual basis and list balance due school district, amounts received from school fund and contributions.

In the back of the book are statements for the years 1857 and 1859 listing number of district, contribution, school fund allotment, amount paid for tuition, amount paid for contingencies, amount due district, amount due committee, number of schools in district, time in operation, and number of scholars.
