 261 Codes of expected behavior for teachers and students as created by the school commissioners of district in New Castle.
 27X Rules for the government of the district schools include number of days of operation per week, expected courses of study, attendance expected of students, acceptable disciplinary practices for teachers, proper deportment of teachers, liability for damage to school property, and signatures of the school committee. An additional regulation deals with excessive truancy in one school and describes in detail the prescribed course of action for continual abuses.
