261 Proceedings of regular and special meetings of the Levy Court concerning the appointments of county officials, road and bridge construction and maintenance, general expenses, and levying of taxes.
270 Officials appointed include assessors, tax collectors, overseers of roads, overseers of the poor, constables and the county treasurer.
Matters undertaken by the Levy Court include such things as road and bridge construction and maintenance, consideration of construction bids and contracts, redistricting and construction of schools, the hearing of petitions (for roads, building school houses or the transfer of residents to new school districts), reports from the Grand Jury or committees appointed to investigate a particular matter (roads, bridges, jailhouse, courthouse, or almshouse activities). Bills rendered against the county for services provided or goods supplied show date of entry, name and reason for disbursement and total amount disbursed. Tax records show amounts collected by each tax collector for his particular hundred.
