261 Orders from the trustees of the poor to local undertakers to furnish coffins for deceased inmates of the almshouse. Also included are the accompanying bills from the undertakers.
27X Orders (after 1903, burial permits) show the date of order, names of deceased and undertaker, amount due for coffin, and signature of trustee authorizing payment. The bills in the series show location and name of undertaker, date, amount due, and name of deceased. Reverse of bill shows the signature of the president of the trustees of the poor and the date the bill was examined and allowed to be paid by the treasurer.
