261 Registers daily record of accounts passed by executors, administrators and guardians.
270 In addition to the accounts presented and passed were the granting of letters testamentary or administration for the settlement of deceased estates and some proceeding from the register's court. Accounts passed show date, name of administrator, executor, or guardian and deceased or minor type (administration or guardian) and number of account passed and amount of balance. Letters granted for administration show date of entry, names of deceased, executor or administrator and bondsman and amount of surety. Court proceedings (1793-1800) show date of entry, names of complainant, respondent and deceased, date and type of court order issued and occasionally case disposition. Renunciation of executors or administrators was also recorded.
290 The first series of volumes is lettered A thru Z. Volumes H and I are also labeled Register. The volume for 1866-1875 with the missing spine, is M.
