261 Petitions from persons seeking to be appointed executor of estates of deceased persons who do not have a will. A Letter of Administration is the formal document issued by the Register of Wills to a person who, through this application, is appointed to handle the estate of the deceased.
270 These records capture information relating to the death, estate and lineage of deceased people who either did not have a will or failed to appoint an executor. The records show the name of the deceased, name and address of the petitioner, date and place of death, next of kin, kin relationship and their place of residence, amount of personal and real property, location of real property, date of petition, signature of the petitioner, and the volume and page number.
