261 Primarily bills and vouchers for supplies, equipment, and services rendered to the almshouse which were submitted to the trustees for payment and approved/disapproved at their quarterly meetings. The series also includes receipts.
27X Information generally included on the bills, vouchers, and receipts includes the date, name of person or business providing services, service provided, and cost of service or supplies. Warrant numbers usually appear on the reverse side. Included among these records are bills and vouchers for making coffins which give the name of the deceased and race, if black. Also included are orders to and poor tax accounts.
Also included with this series are bills for transporting the insane to Farnhurst. Series is a good source for Sussex County business research
