261 Record kept by Leroy B. Tyndall, overseer, documenting the amount of farm produce sold and the supplies purchased by the almshouse.
27X The journal shows the date of transaction, produce or articles sold, and the amount received. Occasionally the name of the person or business to whom items were sold is also given. The expenditures side of the journal shows the date, to whom payment was made, reason for payment, and amount of payment. The accounts were audited periodically and approved by three trustees. Audit information includes the date of the audit and the signatures of the trustees who performed the inspection.
