 261 Settlements are the comprehensive recording of the annual accounts of all school districts in the county.
 27X Information contained in settlements includes dates of posting, district number, old balance, debits, credits from district taxes and school fund distribution, and notation of any monies due district. Each settlement appears to have been removed from a ledger or journal with no reference made to that volume anywhere on the settlements. The 1842 settlement contains statistical information including district number, tax or contribution, school fund distribution, amount paid for tuition, amount paid for contribution, balance due district or balance due committee, number of schools, time in operation, and number of scholars.
