 241 10 volumes (in .43 box), booklets.
 261 Record contains lists of freemen selected for jury duty, freeholders appointed to review tavern license recommendations and appointment lists for county officials.
 27X Lists of jury panels (1910-1871) show court, court term, names of freemen selected, occupation, hundred of residence, dates in attendance and mileage traveled. Tavern license recommendations (1797-1871) show court term, name of petitioners, hundred of residence and fee paid, if granted. Appointment lists include constables (1786-1871) fence-viewers (1768-1773, 1790-1806, 1841-1871), rangers, overseers of highways (1773-1806), and occasionally wood-corders and show names of appointees, hundred of residence, and year of appointment. Overseers of highway lists include description of beginning and ending points of road. Constable and justices of the peace appointments include court term. Court procedures are contained in many of the volumes.
