261 Request or applications submitted to the Court asking that a license be granted to operate a tavern, inn, hotel, or "public house of entertainment." Also included are many lists of applicants who were recommended for a license, remonstrances against granting a license, and tavern licenses.

27X Petitions or applications for a license show the name of petitioner(s), location of tavern, date, and signatures of the petitioner(s) and local residents. They may also show the name of the tavern, school district(s) located in, annual rental value, a description of accommodations, and whether a license was granted. Lists of applicants (1791-1854) show the date, names of those recommended, and may show the hundred or town of the applicant. Remonstrances list the reasons a tavern license should not be granted and show the location of the tavern, name of tavern keeper, and signatures of those protesting. Tavern licenses show license number, name of tavern and tavern keeper, location, date, and signature of the Governor and Secretary of State. The reverse side shows amount of license fee and date license was issued.
