 261 Documents filed for cases appearing before the court.
 27X Records include recognizances, subpoenas, petitions, writs, judgments, narratives, transcripts, interrogatories, pleas, bonds, and citations. Information appearing on the records generally includes the names of the plaintiff and defendant, charge, and action taken by the court. Of special interest are the records of a 1787 case concerning altercations which occurred at election sites. Surviving records include mostly depositions but also contain some accounts of court costs.
