 261 Record of the official proceedings of the meetings of the Town Assembly of Arden.
 27X Information noted in the minutes includes the date and location of meeting, name of presiding trustee, discussion of new and old business, committee reports, and the signatures of the secretary and witness to the minutes. Early minutes are especially rich in detail and include the organizational debate between the single tax ideal supporters and the newer residents of the community; amendments to the by-laws; condition of and needed improvements to the schools; and the benefits of incorporation. A copy of the House bill incorporating the town is also included. Also found within the early minutes is correspondence. Later minute volumes include petitions, cooperative agreements, and lists of the town residents attending each meeting. Committee reports noted in the meetings include budget, assessors, civic, community planning, registration, safety, and the advisory committee.
