 261 Correspondence, reports, delinquent tax lists, assessment notices and tax bills kept by the town Tax Collector and Assessor. Assessments contained values for land and buildings made for tax purposes. Correspondence relates to payment of taxes; tax collector reports give the amount of taxes collected for specific reporting period; delinquent tax lists give name of delinquent, date, amount due, amount of penalty and total; assessment notices show date, property owners name and address, amount of the assessment, and deadlines for appeals. Tax bills show property owners name and address, lot number, description of buildings, total assessed value, and amount of taxes due. Property assessment sheets show owners name and address, lot number, improvements, assessed value and taxes due each year (1954-1963). Assessment books show owner's name, district, lot number, types of buildings, assessed value, amount of taxes due, and total amount of assessment.
