261 Annual financial reports on the City's revenue and expenditures for fiscal year 1995 through fiscal year 1999.
270 The reports show the monthly and annual total revenues from real and personal property, licenses and permits, fines, appropriations, interest income, miscellaneous income, and pension fund income. The expenditures are also monthly and annual totals with the larger expenses being for employee salaries and employee benefits, landfill fees, administrative expenses, vehicles, and street repair. The expenditures are also broken down into reports for each city department, office, grant or category.
