 261 Annual city, audit, and financial reports.
 270 The "Annual Reports and Statement," 1950-1957, provides a narrative and statistical report for the activities of the various city departments. Financial statements are included, as well as illustrations. The "Report of Audit," 1962-1976, are financial statements on income and expenditures for the city and its departments. Annual financial reports, 1978-1993, compiled by the Department of Finance, include combined city financial statements, balance sheets for various funds, schedules of cash and investments, assessed value of taxable real estate, and insurance coverage. These reports list city officials and committee members.
