261 Records kept on immigrants attending classes preparing them for naturalization. The classes were held by the Service Bureau for the Foreign Born and its predecessors, the Delaware Americanization Committee and the Americanization Bureau.
27X The records show name of petitioner, address, date, and country of birth, date and place of arrival, date of marriage, name of spouse, number of children in the U.S. and abroad, declaration number and file date. Witnesses, names and addresses, when they met the immigrant, cities of residence for past five years, number of days of school attended, location of sessions, and remarks are included. Reverse side shows date letters sent to witnesses, date of pre-hearing, date of examinations, remarks, and date granted citizenship.
Early cards labeled "Americanization Bureau" and "Delaware Americanization Committee" which were part of Service Citizens of Delaware before their program was turned over to the Board of Education. For newer records, see RG 1560.
29X Petitioners' Registration Card.
